Transforming Social Security into a Winning Retirement Strategy

On August 4, Leo Pitre introduced his guest speaker, Grant Meyers. Grant is employed with BlackRock Investments out of New York City. BlackRock is the largest asset manager on the globe with $4.7 trillion under management. Grant earned a Finance degree from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, TX. He has been in the investment business for 20 years. He currently lives in Baton Rouge with his wife and 2 children. When he finds some free time, he enjoys fishing and hunting.

Grant provided the group with an informative presentation about qualifying for Social Security and eligible benefits. Social Security was created in 1935. Of the 315 million US Citizens, 60 million receive Social Security Benefits. The average monthly payment is $1300. In order to qualify for Social Security Benefits one must work and pay into the system for 40 Quarters. Social Security bases its benefits on the best 35 earning years. 66 years of age is considered the full retirement age. Each year one delays drawing Social Security Benefits, they will increase benefits

Grant also reviewed benefits that spouses are entitled to. Even if someone has never worked under Social Security, they may be able to get spouse's retirement benefits if they are at least 62 years of age and their spouse is receiving retirement or disability benefits. If a person is divorced, they may still be able to get benefits on their ex-spouse's record if they were married for 10 years. The Ex-spouse does not have to consent and is not informed if one applies under the divorced spouse. Surviving Spouses may also be eligible for benefits.

To view your annual earnings and potential benefits, one can log in online at www.Socialsecurity.gov.
