E.D. White 50th Year Celebration

Michelle Chiasson

Tim Robichaux, fellow Rotarian and E.D. White President, discussed the history and growth of E.D. White High School. Credit is given to Father Charles Menard for his efforts in establishing Catholic Education in the Thibodaux area. E.D. White was formerly called Thibodaux Central College, and the graduating class of 1966 is the only class to have graduated under the original name. In the Fall, the name was then changed to E.D. White High School in honor of Edward Douglas White, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Enrollment in the first year was 377. The school was run by 2 principals until 1970. Through the years the school has undergone several phases of new construction and renovations. The Hall of Fame was introduced. The Preston Lejeune Gym and St. Theresa Music Hall were added. Most recently, the Stadium and Science labs have been renovated. Accomplishments include 6,249 alumni, 45 State Championships, and record enrollment of 793 for next year.

Tim introduced E.D. White principal, Michelle Chiasson. Michelle is the wife of Judge Mark Chiasson. Michelle shared the mission of E.D. White is to impart the Catholic faith, promote academic excellence, and enhance self-esteem. The goal of the administration is to meet the needs of every student. This fall, E.D. White will open its doors to a new population of students, children with special needs. This will provide growth opportunities for all students. E.D. White plans a yearlong series of events in order to promote its 50th year celebration. All Rotarians are invited and encouraged to attend! For a listing of events, please visit their website at: www.edwhite.org
